

DEDICATION

I dedicate this book to all American Navy crewmen who serve or ever served in the United States Submarine Service for their devotion and loyalty while protecting our nation and our way of life.

With fondness and my highest admiration, I also dedicate this book to the wives and families of submariners in appreciation for their devotion, sacrifice and selfless support given to those who have sailed beneath the waves.